

Brutal Double Murder in Paris

Paris, June 1.—A double murder was committed here during the early hours of the morning that for absolute brutality would be hard to parallel in the annals of crimes in Paris.

Adolphe Steinheil, a noted portrait painter, a son of Louis Charles Auguste Steinheil, one of the most celebrated of French artists, and a grand nephew of Messier, and his wife's mother, Mme. Japy, were strangled to death in the artist's home in the Rue de Valenciennes, his wife was gagged and bound to her bed and heard her mother's dying struggles as she fought her life with the murderers.

The woman and her mother-in-law, her husband and her mother were found by a man servant who had been sent to prepare breakfast.

Mme. Steinheil, suffering from great nervous shock, told the police that three men and a woman, the latter she recognized as one of the women of her husband's models, for only a few minutes before the murder, had entered the house about 1 o'clock in the morning and sprang upon her like wild beasts, killing her, but they left Mme. Steinheil helpless and proceeded to other parts of the house, where they strangled M. Steinheil and his mother-in-law. The whole house was ransacked and it is impossible to say how fierce the death struggle had been.

The police seem to be losing to account for the tragedy of themselves. Corbier, a night watchman on the neck of the man and the woman show the manner of their death.

Latet-night it was reported that an Italian had been arrested as one of the assassins.

The marketmen succeeded in obtaining of several thousand dollars' worth of valuables. The original motive, according to the police would seem to be robbery, as it had been the intention of the Steinheils to make a trip to the country.

The Ontario Nominations

Toronto, June 1.—Nominations in Ontario passed off without any excitement except Welland where G. W. Sutherland, (Liberal) may try and claim the election from Evan Fraser, the late sitting member. The election act calls for receiving nominations between twelve and two p.m., but another section provides that if an hour elapses between nominations they shall be closed, and if only one is nominated, he shall be declared elected. Sutherland was not nominated and seconded at 12:20 or 12:40. A written nomination, but not recorded, was filed for Fraser and about 1:30 or 1:35 a formal written nomination properly seconded was handed in.

Sutherland's attorney claims that the time limit had expired and will try to secure the seat. Six Conservatives were elected by acclamation, being Hon. Col. Matheson, (St. Catharines); W. J. Paul, (King); J. J. Preston, (Durham, East); A. A. Marley, (Mississauga); Alex. Ferguson, (Simcoe South); and H. Carnegie, (Victoria, East).

North Hastings, Prince Edward and Grenville, there are no Liberal candidates but there are Liberal Conservatives, in the field. In South Waterloo, Geo. Pattinson, (Conservative), (E. M. A.) is opposed only by an (E. M. A.) No Conservative is entered in West Middlesex but there are two Liberals, while in West Simcoe, J. A. Arlt, calls himself a Temperance Liberal.

Chinese Troubles in England

London, June 1.—There is serious trouble in the East End of London owing to the engagement of Chinese crews for British ships, and it was with the utmost difficulty on Monday that the police prevented a desperate riot.

The difficulty has arisen over the action of certain shipping firms in engaging Chinese crews, to the exclusion of British and other European sailors, some hundreds of whom have not had a ship for months past.

On Saturday a crew of Asiatics were brought to the Board of Trade office for enrolment but were met by pickets of the trade union. When they had signed on, they were directed to a ship in the Surrey Commercial Docks. But Mr. Potten of the National Seamen's Union was there, and was able to put the Chinese to special compartments of the train, have them locked in, and consigned to Whitechapel instead of to Shadwell.

When the mistake was discovered at Whitechapel the men were sent back, and it was too late for two hundred Chinese to get on a night train. The tactics of the day over $200 were intended to upset the gangway. The captain and dock official were in a difficulty, but the ship had to be cleared for Cardiff with the tide, and a few Chinese were sent on for the trip at 8 p.m.

The Chinese crew, as a result of the tactics of the day over $200 were intended to upset the gangway. The captain and dock official were in a difficulty, but the ship had to be cleared for Cardiff with the tide, and a few Chinese were sent on for the trip at 8 p.m.

The Chinese assembled two or three times for the purpose of going to the office, but when they were told that the demonstrators of the white seamen they had a hasty retreat. At intervals of two hours they met; but each time they were forced to disperse with out obtaining their object, and the crowd of whites grew more excited with each attack.

About half-past three in the afternoon the Chinamen were seen crossing the road to the western side to escape observation. As each had his flag rolled under his hat, and his European clothes, while the leader was a smart, young yellow gentleman in a clean straw hat and navy-blue lounge suit, they almost escaped notice.

But they made the mistake of proceeding to the front entrance, where they were met by the police, and were driven away by the police. The Chinamen's entrance in Jerusalem, and under an escort of constables.

But a crowd of British sailors who are out of work had gathered in the Jerusalem-street entrance, and barred the way. Orders were given to the police to "clear them out" and soon the Chinese were put safely into the office, and the Chinamen were cleared of all others for their accommodation.

Gasoline Accident in Calgary

Calgary, June 1.—As a result of an explosion of gasoline in a house on Fifteenth Avenue three persons are lying in the Holy Cross hospital, suffering from severe burns. They are Mr. and Mrs. L. Choquette and Peter Germon.

It has been a difficult matter to find out just exactly how the fire originated, but as far as can be learned, the three were in the house, which was a small frame one, "German" being a visitor. Mr. and Mrs. Choquette were changing some clothes with gasoline, when by some means it exploded, the blazing fluid spreading in all directions and igniting their clothes. Germon, after vainly attempting to put out the fire, jumping through the window, and in doing so was badly cut by the glass in the head and hands. The three rushed to Dan Cadman's house, next door, with their clothes blazing, and before the fire could be smothered, they were badly burned.

By this time the building was in flames and when the fire brigade arrived in answer to the alarm from front box No. 35, nothing could be done to save the house or contents. The brigade, however, prevented it from spreading to the adjoining buildings.

The two city ambulances were at once summoned and the badly burned persons removed to the Holy Cross hospital, where Mr. and Mrs. Choquette are being treated by Dr. Costello, and Mr. Germon by Dr. Crawford. Germon's body is a mass of blistered skin and the limbs, and Mr. and Mrs. Choquette are severely burned around their necks and on their bodies.

GRAIN THIEVES CAUGHT

Minot, June 1.—Grain stealing is so prevalent that a vigilance committee has been formed for watching aspects. Three men latched up and drove seven miles and were found driving in an oat bin, when the reinforced chere closed in and captured the three men with the goods. They proved to be T. E. King and his son Cecil, with the third man, Jack Evans. The prisoners were given in charge of Provincial Constable Bell and removed to jail.

REPAIRING DAMAGE AT PORT ARTHUR

Port Arthur, Ont., June 1.—The breach in the C.P.R. track occasioned by the disastrous floods of the Current river, which has for the past few days delayed the mails and generally disorganized that division of the main line traffic, has been temporarily bridged over, and the track was once more connected. Trains have commenced to come through again, and the laborious transfer of mail and passengers by the tug boat is no longer necessary. In a few days this will be running as smoothly as before. The city's water system which has been paralyzed since the disaster, is again in working order, and will soon be in a good condition again.

Thus the principal trouble seems to have been removed and public utilities are once more all in operation as if nothing had happened. To connect the city water mains with steam auxiliary plant near the electric power house it was necessary to build an aerial pipe line over a distance of about one hundred yards. Under the conditions this was considered a great engineering feat.

Cecil B. Smith Saturday commenced his examination of the power system and will report to the city council tomorrow regarding a renewal of the destroyed in the flood. Thousands of people took advantage of the opportunity offered Sunday to visit the scene of the catastrophe.

An Explanation

To The Journal: In reference to the article which appeared in your paper on the 28th ult., I wish to state the immigrants in question arrived at Strathcona railway station at 10:45 p.m., after the Immigration Hall was closed, and as their destination was Edmonton, I consider Mr. Fraser did perfectly right in allowing them to proceed to the Immigration Hall in Edmonton.

Treating this explanation will prove satisfactory, and that you will kindly insert in your paper.

Yours very truly,

MRS. MARY WILTSIE,

Matron Immigration Hall, Edmonton

Drowned in Red Deer River

Calgary, June 1.—Robert Wigmore, a rancher well known in Calgary and district, lost his life in the Red Deer river, 12 miles northeast of Carlton Saturday afternoon.

From the meagre reports brought to the city this morning by W. W. Wasson, who was not an eye-witness of the fatality. It appears that Wigmore was attempting to ford the river at the point where he had lost his life with a team and wagon.

The horses were taken over, and the unfortunate man returned to the other side to ferry his wagon over. He was assisted in pulling the ferry by the owner and son, whose names are not known. The strong wind blowing at the time and swift current overturned the small ferry, and all three were thrown into the river.

The owner of the ferry grabbed his gun by the coat collar and held him above water, until he grappled the boat again, but Wigmore was carried down the stream and was drowned.

Wasson left Carlton yesterday morning, up to that time the body had not been recovered.

Robert Wigmore, who was about 35 years of age, was a son of Samuel Wigmore, the well-known rancher, and one of the earliest settlers in the Calgary district.

ANONYMOUS TERRORIZING

Chicago, May 31.—Father Peter J. O'Callaghan and Mr. Hunkler in Chicago, and Attorney Francis B. Hinkley, have been informed through an anonymous letter, written in blood and wrapped in crepe that they have been marked for death by mysterious enemies, and St. Mary's church, Wabash Ave. and Hubbard Court, has been doomed to be blown up with dynamite. The threatening letter was dropped by an unknown hand into the poor box of St. Mary's church, of which Father O'Callaghan is pastor. It was unsigned and undated. On one side was a crudely drawn picture of a skull and cross bones.

Death to the priest and lawyer was threatened it is believed in consequence of their efforts to obtain a pardon for Herman Bilke, under sentence to hang on June 12 in the Cook county jail on a charge of murdering by poison six members of the Ford family. A chemical analysis proved that the red fluid in which the letter was written was blood and not red ink.

Father O'Callaghan declared last night that he would lay the letter before Governor Denison in the hope that it would induce the Governor to pardon Bilke.

Father O'Callaghan and Mr. Hinkley, drew a confession from Jerry Hotal, a few months ago that he had given a perjured testimony against Bilke in the trial. By this means they succeeded in bringing Bilke's case before the pardon board. The board said with Governor Denison in destroyed in the flood. Thousands of people took advantage of the opportunity offered Sunday to visit the scene of the catastrophe.

Should Have Known Better

Renfrew, Ont., June 1.—A great sensation has been caused here by the arrest for bigamy of John Anderson, who was married a month ago to the Miss Florence Jamieson, youngest daughter of Rev. Wm. S. Jamieson, of the Methodist church. Anderson has been inspector of schools at Brockville since leaving here in September last, having been principal of the public school here for two years.

His story of being a widower was never disbelieved. He and Mrs. Anderson came to Renfrew a few days ago to visit Rev. and Mrs. Jamieson, and it was while on this visit that he was arrested. It appears that an innated copy of the paper was sent to his first wife in Toronto, containing an account of his second marriage here in April, although it appears that he had caused a letter to be sent to her from out west, saying that he was on his way to a school in British Columbia, and having taken smallpox on the way he was forced to leave the train at Banff, while in fact he was just on the eve of his marriage here. Besides a few days, who is living in Toronto, he has nine children, five daughters and four sons, two of whom are married and have children. Asked whether he preferred being tried by the magistrate here or by jury, he preferred the former and refused a solicitor for his defense. He pleaded guilty and is to appear again next Saturday, when his sentence will be pronounced. Anderson is 34 years of age, although at the time of his marriage here in April his age was put on the register as 39 years.

Reported Loss of Liner With 1600 Lives

Paris June 1.—A special dispatch to the Paris Journal from Brussels says it is rumored that the Red Star steamer Vaterland has been wrecked in the North Sea, in a dense fog. There are sixteen hundred passengers on board.

Lloyds do not confirm this news which, however, comes from what is usually considered a most reliable source. There were three collisions in the North Sea today, and passengers on the Dover-Ostend mail declare that they saw the vessel cast away on the Goodwin Sands.

The Vaterland was due to sail from Antwerp for New York, May 30. According to schedule she would have rival. Up to a late hour Sunday night she had not been reported. There was heavy fog in the English Channel, and a number of collisions occurred, the steamer Looma, a portion of whose crew were landed in Dover, reports having been in the collision with an unknown steamer.

The Vaterland in March of last year, sailing from Antwerp for New York, went ashore on Goodwin Sands a range of dangerous shoals in the Straits of Dover, and was wrecked the following day without damage. The Vaterland was the first of the new steamships which have been added to the Red Star line since 1900. She was built at Clyde Bank, and was launched on July 12th, 1900. She is of the twin screw type and has eleven watertight compartments. Her length is 380 feet, and she has a tonnage of 12,300 with accommodation for 350 first, 200 second and more than 1,000 third-class passengers.

On January 19, 1907, the Vaterland ran into and sank the Dundee steamer Narvorth Castle, east of the Scotch Goodwin Lightship. The Narvorth Castle sank immediately, several men were drowned, but a number of the crew saved themselves by climbing aboard the Vaterland. A dense fog prevailed at the time of the collision.

Will it Work

Altoona, Ill., June 1.—Belief in the theory that the last object seen by a murdered person may be fixed as a photograph negative on the retina, caused Coroner Steeper to have a photograph taken of one eye of a woman, whose body was taken on Thursday from the Mississippi river and who it is thought, was murdered and thrown into the river. The developed photograph, the coroner says shows a faint outline of the face of a man with hooked nose, bearded cheeks and gray blouse and cap. The coroner says he will try to find a possible murderer by the use of this photograph.

A postmortem examination established the absence of water in the lungs, although the body had evidently been in the water for several weeks, and the neck was broken.

Death to the priest and lawyer was threatened it is believed in consequence of their efforts to obtain a pardon for Herman Bilke, under sentence to hang on June 12 in the Cook county jail on a charge of murdering by poison six members of the Ford family. ## Boxing Contest Tomorrow Night

At the Thistle Rink, Edmonton, tomorrow night Billy Lauder, of Calgary, and Lynn Truscott, of Edmonton, will box fifteen rounds for the lightweight championship of Alberta. It is probable that the best contest ever pulled off in the city will be seen. Certainly two boxes of the class of these men never met in Edmonton. Lauder held the lightweight championship of Canada and Truscott held the same proud title in Australia before coming to this country. While Truscott is clever and swift, those who have seen both men in action think that the boy from Calgary is even faster, and that his superior speed will discount Truscott's hitting power. Bob MacDonald, proprietor of the Thistle Hotel, and one of the managers of the Alberta Athletic Club, who are putting on the bout, has been chosen as referee and a good clean contest is assured.

Collied in Fog

Dover, June 1.—(5 a.m.)—A heavy fog in the channel last night, which had lasted for 24 hours, was responsible for several collisions. The British steamer Queenswood, was towed into harbor, having been severely damaged in collision with the Spanish steamer, Bameo. Before the Queenswood could be got to her moorings, she sank in the harbor. The Bameo arrived leaking badly.

BRITISH TROOPS HARD PRESSED

Calcutta, June 1.—Undiscouraged by their loss or more than 200 warriors in a recent battle with the British troops at Umri-Khik, the rebel Mohmand tribesmen along the north Indian frontier are desperately fighting every foot of the English advance into their country.

It is certain that between a dozen and a score of the rebels, General Sir James Willcocks, commanding the British troops, is facing an extremely difficult situation.

Just as was feared, the Mohmands have succeeded in raising several other or border tribes, and there are probably fully 12,000 or 15,000 rebels in the field at present.

CURRENT COMMENT

Under the title of "The Proprietary Dilemma" the Oliver Organ is at present attacking the Whitney Government because it happens that Dr. MacDonald the Editor of the Globe was appointed by that Government to the governorship of Toronto University. It would take a "Hushabye" lawyer to follow the line of argument which the Bulletin presents to its readers. Its argument seems so far as we can follow it to be that because the Whitney conservative government appointed the most rabid gift in Ontario to the highest available position in the world of learning, and because this gentleman has carried his abuse of the Whitney Government to extremes never dreamt of by conservative papers in their criticism of liberal governments and because the Mail and Empire has suggested that Dr. MacDonald's position as holder of an office in the gift of the Whitney Government is scarcely consistent with his virulent abuse of that government therefore the Whitney Government may be held up justly to reproach.

"If the appointment was calculated to impress the public with Mr. Whitney's chivalrous disregard of party relations, the demanded resignation may be relied upon to effectually dispel any such impression."

We ask nothing better than that the people of Alberta should consider their question seriously and compare Mr. Whitney's action with that of the Dominion Government or the Ontario Provincial Government. Could the most imaginative conceive of the latter administration appointing a conservative to any important office? Is it within the realms of possibility to think of a Conservative having been appointed Chancellor of our own provincial University? Did the Ruthven administration ever dream of such a contingency? There is no man in the Province that does not know they did not. And yet because the Mail and Empire suggests that Dr. MacDonald should resign the Bulletin takes the astounding course of attacking the Whitney government with its appointed its most bigoted political opponent to a high office and has made no move against him although he has treated them to nothing but abuse since his appointment. The Oliver Organ is entirely bereft of its senses. "Much pap hath made thee mad."

MRS. GUNNESS IN BROOKLYN

Laporte, Ind., June 1. — Attorneys Darrow and Worken, representing Roy Lamborne, are in receipt of a postcard mailed in New York, but unsigned, saying that Mrs. Gunness might be located at Seventeenth St., Brooklyn. J. W. Voorhees, a lumber dealer at Pochontas, —, writes that on May 19, a woman strikingly resembling the picture of Mrs. Gunness printed in the papers, called at his office and solicited contributions for the Children's Orphan Home at Mount Grove, Ohio.

Lamborne's attorneys stated today that detectives have located in Chicago the "mysterious" H. H. who claimed to have seen and talked with Mrs. Gunness in Ogden, Utah, six days after the fire where which destroyed her home. According to Darrow and Worken, H. H. showed the "detectives a letter purporting to have been written by Mrs. Gunness in which she told of carrying in man's clothes and that she threw her gold teeth into the fire. He says that she is well and happy.

THE LISTS.

(The Tribune) (Independent)

The row that has been made in the country, and the tremendous loss entailed by the obstruction tactics pursued in parliament should influence the Ottawa government to apply a solution to the question of preparing voters' lists that would silence all criticism and prevent a repetition of any such spectacle as at present exists. The trouble is that each party thinks the other is trying to take an unfair advantage, and we do not see how any permanent settlement of the difficulty can be reached, so that all will feel that their interests are absolutely safe-guarded, unless the government places the preparation of the lists in the hands of a non-partisan commission, controlled by the high court judges of the various provinces. It is a serious reflection upon it, that such squabbles as prevail at present should arise. A patriotic government, desiring to serve the interests of the people, only would solve such a problem. The trouble, however, is that governments are far more concerned with retaining in office, enjoying the sweets and shaking the plum tree, than they are with conserving the public interest. If the government would place the preparation of the lists, and the administration of the electoral machinery under the direction and control of the judges, they would do something that would draw hearty approval and support from the people at large.

Will they do it?

Defects scarcely noticeable in children assume dangerous proportions with advancing years.

A proper correction now will prevent serious complications later.

"THE POOR BRIDEGROOM."

Poor brute!

What an ordeal it is to go to church to be married. However can a man be brought to face it, and quite bravely too sometimes.

Isn't it wonderful.

He must be there half an hour before the time, and he knows for a "dead cert" the bride will be late. She must be poor girl! Public opinion demands it. No bride must seem to be anxious for her day, even when it is within her grasp or seems so.

Cold waterfalls are running down his back, his gloves are much too tight and his collar feels as if it would choke him, and still he must smile. The world forgets for once that Shakespeare—that marvellous judge of character—remarked that "a snail may smile and still be a villain."

Old ladies smile upon him very benevolently—all the world loves a lover, still "inappropriate" descriptions, giggle and look coy when he attempts to enter into conversation with them.

They feel they never know when their turn will come to make a laughing stock of a man.

Old "pals" come up to him and wind his hand in deepest sympathy in this hour of bitter trial.

Others slap him on the back and tell him to cheer up.

And he does not reprove them and he holds face on his misery—he only smiles miserably and looks foolish.

Poor brute!

And then she comes. There is a whisper and rustling of silks, all heads turn in one direction and he knows there is no chance of escape.

His hour has come!

So has his future wife! When you are dead you are dead a long time, but when you are married you are married forever, or at least you used to be.

Her last injunction as they kissed and parted last night flashed across him and adds to the horror of the situation.

"And above all Tom when I come up the aisle, mind you turn and look at me as if you loved me dearly—as you do darling—and don't look miserable, like Jack Ferris did when that horrid Smith girl married him."

Here she is and she smiles as if he never meant to stop.

Then he collapses suddenly—Heavens! he has forgotten the ring! The best man is an angel of light. "I've got it old chap," he whispers loudly so that all the bridesmaids hear. "Keep up your courage and for goodness sake throw yourself into your clothes and look as if you liked it!"

Despair lends him courage. He will do his duty.

He makes his responses in a voice that makes the parson unconsciously recoil a yard or so; he will go through with it now gloriously if he dies in the attempt.

He kisses all the girls in the vestry and the best man barely escapes.

At the reception he faces the crowd which is as eager to inspect him as if he were some strange variety of animal from the zoo. He must amblingly move about among the visitors, not one in ten of whom he knows.

He looked as if he liked rice when they put it down his neck.

Hedges not even break down when the best man sees them off at the station.

Baths bride does—and sobs for mother—and that is assuredly one of the most awful moments of his life.

Poor brute!

"You may carve it on his tombstone—You may write it on his card, That a good man married Is a good man married."

A special meeting of the L.O.L. 654 will be held on Friday evening, June 5th, in the Orange Hall, for the purpose of making preparations for the celebration to be held here on July 13th. All the brethren are requested to attend.

Weak women should try Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories go direct to the seat of these weaknesses. My "Book No. 4 For Women" contains many valuable hints to women. It is free. Ask the doctor in attendance, any questions you wish answered. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is sold by all Dealers.

J. E. Green leaves tonight for Niagara Falls, to attend High Court meeting of the Canadian Order of Foresters. Mr. Green will also visit his friends in that vicinity. He expects to return in about three weeks' time.

The teachers' institute is again meeting in Gradin St. school today.

The first scheduled game in the Twilight League will be played on the Edmonton Baseball grounds tonight between the baseball teams of the Young Liberal Club, and Strathcona. The game commences at 6:30 sharp. May or McHughall will pitch the first ball and Hon. C.W. Cross will catch it, perhaps. W. Cattison will umpire the game. The admission to the grounds will be 25 cents.

Eric McLean left by yesterday afternoon's train for Toronto to take part in the final try out to select a team to represent Canada at the Olympic games to be held at Shepherd's Bush, London. All Albertans and particularly all citizens of the University City will be interested in McLean's performance. That he has a veritable turn of speed is beyond dispute. He has had no opportunities this year of getting himself into anything like condition. A few games at soccer have constituted his whole training and yet at Calgary according to the scores he almost equaled the world's record. Indeed his time on a clay horse, racing track is phenomenal. We are therefore a liberal discount on the "recklessness" he is now showing at this time.

Piles are easily and quickly cured with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial tube as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine Wis. I merely would not send it free. It was certain that Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for swelling, painful, bleeding, or itching piles, either external or internal. Large jar 50c. Sold by all Dealers.

Yesterday a horse owned by R. B. Bisset and driven by an employee at the factory took fright while coming up the road from Edmonton and ran away. The occupants of the wagon were the driver and a child of Mr. Bisset's. The rig collided with Ritchie's mill and again with a post at the corner of Fourth Ave. north, and First at east. Both were thrown out and the child was rendered unconscious. A doctor was summoned and it was found necessary to place several stitches in the child's head to close up a bad cut. The driver was not seriously injured but the wagon was smashed to pieces.

We had a visit yesterday from Mr. Eldridge, who is busy at present across the river building a boat in which he is going to make the journey from Edmonton to the Gulf of Mexico. Mr. Eldridge will down the Saskatchewan and across the lakes and then down the Mississippi. He expects that the only overland part of the journey will be from Fargo to St. Cloud, about 100 miles. He hopes to start very shortly. He will be accompanied by his wife, Mr. Eldridge, who has been in this district several years, will write a series of articles on his experiences. Last year the journey was made as far as Winnipeg.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is a never-failing cure. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The remedy is mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, listless, and nervous. Dr. Shoop's Restorative does the work. Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course never brings you back to full health in a day or two but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Physicians everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the sluggish than any other known or concocted tonic. It sharpens a falling appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength, and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by all Dealers.

J. L. Porter, who has charge of the Strathcona portion of the Twin City exhibit at Calgary Fair is very anxious that the University City and Strathcona should put up a display that will be a credit to all concerned. Although the exhibit is a challenge of the natural resources of the country have been run in all the local papers they have met with no response. This can be explained only by the fact that most people are apt to think that at the exhibit management will have plenty of offers from the others. There is at there is abundant material for an exhibit from this part of the world that will be second to none is undoubtedly and it is the duty of every one desirous of boosting this locality to take a hand. The exhibits selected will be paid for at the management have no desire to make anyone a loser who offers exhibits. We sincerely trust that all parties who have promising vegetables of this year's growth that good vegetables or fruit of this year's growth or anything in fact which shows the natural resources of the district will put themselves in communication with Mr. Porter of the Strathcona Board of Trade. All exhibits have to be in by the 14th inst.
